Especially with our most holy, most pure, most blessed and glorious Lady, the Mother of God and Ever-Virgin, Mary.

In you, 0 Full of Grace, all creation rejoices: the angelic ranks and all the human race. Sanctified temple and spiritual paradise, virgins' pride and boast, from whom God is made flesh and became a little Child; and he who is our God before the ages, he made your womb a throne, and he made it wider than all the heavens. In you, 0 Full of Grace, all creation rejoices. Glory be to you.

With the holy prophet, forerunner, and Baptist, John, the holy, glorious and all-praised Apostles, with Saint N./NN., whose memory we celebrate, and all your saints, by whose intercessions visit us, 0 God.

And remember all who have fallen asleep in the hope of resurrection and eternal life. For the repose and forgiveness of sins of the servants of God NN. Give them rest, 0 our God, in a place of light, whence have fled all sorrow and mourning—in the place where the light of your face keeps watch.

Again we pray you: remember, 0 Lord, your holy, catholic and apostolic Church, from one end of the world to the other, and give peace to her whom you have made your own by the precious blood of your Christ, and establish this holy house until the consummation of the world.

Remember, 0 Lord, those who have brought these gifts, and those for whom, through whom, and on behalf of whom they have brought them. Remember, 0 Lord, those who bring offerings and do good work in your holy churches, and who remember the poor. Reward them with your riches and heavenly gifts of grace; for earthly things grant them heavenly ones; for temporal ones, eternal, for corruptible, incorruptible. Remember, 0 Lord, those in deserts and mountains and caves and in the hollows of the earth. Remember, 0 Lord, those who live in virginity, piety, asceticism, and purity.

Remember, 0 Lord, our nation under God, our government and all the military, grant them deep and undisturbed peace; speak good things to their hearts for your Church and for all your people; so that by their tranquility we may pass our life in quiet and calm, in all piety and purity. Remember, 0 Lord, all officials and authorities, our brethren in the government and all the armed forces. Keep those who are good in goodness. In your kindness, make good those who are wicked.

Remember, 0 Lord, the people here present and those who are absent for just causes, and have mercy on them and on us according to the multitude of your mercy. Fill their storehouses with every good thing; preserve their marriages in peace and concord; nourish the infants, guide the young, strengthen the aged; comfort the fainthearted; gather the scattered; bring back the wayward, and join them to your holy, catholic and apostolic Church. Free those who are troubled by unclean spirits, sail with those who sail, journey with those journeying, champion widows, protect orphans, deliver prisoners, heal the sick.

Remember, 0 God, those under trial, in mines, exile, bitter slavery and in every tribulation, constraint and trouble, and all who entreat your great compassion; and those who love us, those who hate us and those who have asked us, unworthy though we are, to pray for them.

And remember all your people, 0 Lord our God. Pour out on them your rich mercy, granting them all their petitions unto salvation. And those whom we have not remembered, either through ignorance, or forgetfulness, or the number of their names, remember them yourself, 0 God, who know the age and name of each, who know each from their mother's womb. For You, 0 Lord, are the help of the helpless, the hope of those without hope, the Saviour of the storm-tossed, the haven of those at sea, the physician of the sick. Be all things to all people, 0 you who know each one and their request, each household and its needs.

Deliver, 0 Lord, this city (or: this village, or: this monastery), and every city, town and village, from famine, plague, earthquake, flood, fire, sword, foreign invasion and civil war.

Among the first, remember, 0 Lord, our most holy universal Pontiff, N., Pope of Rome; our most blessed Major Archbishop and Metropolitan, N., our most reverend Archbishop and Metropolitan, N, our God-loving Bishop, N.. For the sake of your holy churches grant that they may live in peace, safety, honour, and health for many years, and rightly impart the word of your truth.

And remember all men and all women.

Remember, 0 Lord, the servant(s) of God IV./NN., unto their salvation, visitation, and the forgiveness of their sins. Remember, 0 Lord, the entire episcopate of the orthodox that rightly imparts the word of your truth.

According to the multitude of your mercies, remember also me, your unworthy servant. Pardon my every offence, voluntary and involuntary; and do not, because of my sins, withhold the grace of your Holy Spirit from the gifts set forth here. Remember, Lord, the order of presbyters, the diaconate in Christ, and every order of clergy; put none of us who stand around your altar to shame.
