

Renovations

In 1986, under the direction of Rev. Jarapolk Radkewycz, the basement of the church was excavated to install washrooms for the convenience of parishioners.

By 1997, it was clear the interior and exterior of the fifty year old church needed a major facelift. Under Fr. Ernest Hafichuk's guidance, Phase 1 (facelift of the church exterior, addition of a new foyer and landscaping) was completed in September, 1999.

Phase 2, the interior work, consisting of a new crying room and confessional, was completed in June, 1999. New stained glass windows designed and constructed by Prairie Stained Glass were also installed in 1999.

Phase 3, the installation of new pews was completed in 2000. The new chandelier was installed in 2001. The total cost of all these renovations was approximately $400,000.

In Phase 4 of renovations (2011), under the direction of Fr. Michael Tkachuk, Josef Rubenstein was contracted to restore Leo Mol's murals in elegant style. At the same time, the sanctuary wood floor was restored, new high tech lighting was installed and the walls were painted a beautiful red/rose which gives the church an atmosphere of majestic grace. The church is considered to be one of Brandon's historic landmarks.

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Ukrainian Catholic Church

A Brief History

The Early Years...

*Rev. Achille Delaere, CSSR
First priest to serve Ukrainians in Brandon*

In the late 1800's, settlers from various parts of Europe, particularly Austro-Hungary, immigrated to Canada. Ukrainian settlers in the Brandon area hungered for spiritual food and were first served by Rev. Achille Delaere CSSR, a Belgian born, Latin rite priest, who arrived on October 11, 1899, and served until January 12, 1904. To ensure that these immigrants were not neglected by the Roman Catholic Church, Fr. Delaere worked hard to ensure liturgies could be provided in Ukrainian for the eastern rite Ukrainians (both Catholics and Orthodox) at St. Augustine's Roman Catholic Church. But it wasn't long before the parishioners yearned for a church of their own.

First church— 1st Street & Lorne Avenue

In 1903, construction on the new church began on the southeast corner of 1st Street and Lorne Avenue. In 1904, and $800 later, the church was completed and the first Divine Liturgy was celebrated by Rev. Naucratius Kryzanovsky OSBM. Joseph Kaschor was the first cantor.

Rev. Kryzanovsky served the Ukrainian faithful until 1909.

Growing in Numbers...

On Sept. 4, 1910, thirty-one parishioners held a meeting in the home of Andrew Nazar at which time the first trustees to the parish executive were elected. Under their leadership, the Ukrainian community of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (St. Mary's) developed a religious and cultural life which helped attract resident priests. The first rectory was constructed in 1910.

By the early to mid 1920's, St. Mary's was operating at full capacity and, it was about this time, the Orthodox families decided to build their own church - the Holy Ghost Ukrainian Orthodox Church - which still stands today. In the division of church equity, the Orthodox church retained the hall while the Catholics retained the church on 1st Street. In 1926, the Ivan Franko Ukrainian Reading Association Hall was built at 1001 Assiniboine Avenue and provided a home for social and cultural activities for St. Mary's church.

By the late 1930's, the number of parishioners at the 1st Street church grew to the point where a larger church was needed. Harry Pasklevich donated the land on the corner of 10th Street and Assiniboine Avenue for the construction of a new and larger church.

The services of Mike Sawchuk, a master builder trained and influenced by Rev. Philip Ruh (a Ukrainian priest and the most influential "self-taught" architect of Ukrainian Catholic Churches in western Canada), were retained to lead the construction of the new church using volunteer labour from parishioners.

Building a new church...

In 1940, construction began on the new church and completed in 1941, in time to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the arrival of the first Ukrainians in Canada.

Tragedy struck the relatively new church building in the spring of about 1945 when a fire caused severe damage to the interior of the church. The cost of repairs was approximately $12,000, a princely sum for the time. At the time of repairs, Leo Mol (a re-known sculptor) was hired to paint the murals on the ceilings and domes of the interior. Completed in 1949, the art still remains today and is considered an art treasure.

In the early 1970's, a small satellite church of St. Mary's, was built on property located on Richmond Avenue near 3rd Street to serve the English speaking needs of families in the church. Father Eugene Rudachek celebrated Divine Liturgies for about thirty people. The arrangement lasted only a few years after which the property was returned to St. Mary's.
