Nowhere in Israel Have I Found as Much Faith

The Lord Jesus agreed to go to the centurion's house to cure his servant, but he replied: I am not worthy to have you under my roof; only say the word and my servant will be healed. In protesting his unworthiness the centurion showed himself worthy to have Christ enter not his house but his heart. Yet he could not have said this with such faith and humility unless he already bore within his heart the One he was too overawed to have within his house. In any case, there would have been no great happiness at the entry of the Lord Jesus within his walls if he were not present in his heart.

But what emboldened the centurion to act as he did? I am under authority myself, he said, and have soldiers under me; and I say to one man, Go, and he goes; to another, Come here, and he comes; to my servant, Do this, and he does it.

Now the man who said this was a Gentile as well as a centurion. He was a professional soldier and, as a centurion, acted according to his rank: subject to authority and exercise in authority, obeying as a subordinate and giving orders to those subordinate to him. As for the Lord, though living among the Jewish people, He was already beginning to make it known that His Church would extend throughout the whole world into which He was about to send His apostles. Although the Gentiles would not see him they would believe in him, whereas the Jewish leaders who saw him would put him to death.

MAY 27 COVID-19 PROTOCOL

The lockdown has been extended to June 26th. Although clergy are asked to perform their basic priestly duties as best as possible, they may celebrate liturgical services only with a small essential team of individuals that must remain consistent throughout this period. This means the parish priest, a cantor, a reader, and a doorman/usher and/or a sacristan. This number may include a livestreaming/camera operator if the parish is so equipped. The parish priest will be responsible to form the team which should be kept to a number not exceeding five (5) persons unless there is some truly extenuating circumstance. Services such as Funerals, Weddings and Baptisms may be categorized as "special public gatherings", thus allowing for up to ten (10) participants. Holy Communion may be distributed outside of the Divine Liturgy, but only if it is possible to observe all pandemic and safe-environment protocols. The Sacrament of Confession may be offered on an individual basis – by appointment. All other pastoral activity that is not essential should be halted or postponed until this latest lockdown period is concluded.

HUMOUR

While having their evening dinner together, a little girl looked up at her father and asked, "Daddy, you're the boss in our family, right?" The father was very pleased to hear it and confidently replied, "Yes, my little princess." The girl then continued, "That's because mommy put you in charge, right?" ☺
