Nowhere in Israel Have I Found as Much Faith

In the Gospel we heard our own faith extolled as it was manifested by humility. The Lord Jesus agreed to go to the centurion's house to cure his servant, but he replied: I am not worthy to have you under my roof; only say the word and my servant will be healed. In protesting his unworthiness the centurion showed himself worthy to have Christ enter not his house but his heart. Yet he could not have said this with such faith and humility unless he already bore within his heart the One he was too overawed to have within his house.

In any case, there would have been no great happiness at the entry of the Lord Jesus within his walls if He were not present in his heart. ... The centurion's house He did not in fact enter, but He took possession of his heart. The centurion said: I am not worthy to have you under my roof. The Lord praised the faith shown by his humility, replying: I tell you, not even in Israel have I found faith like this. He meant Israel in a physical sense, for the centurion was already an Israelite in spirit.

The Lord had come to the people of Israel, that is to the Jews, to seek out the lost sheep first among that people in whom and from whom he had taken flesh; but not even there, He says, did He find such faith. We can only judge a person's faith from a human viewpoint; but He who sees the heart and whom no one ever deceives testified to the state of this man's heart: on hearing the centurion's humble words He pronounced His assurance of healing.

QUOTE OF THE DAY

Winston Churchill was once asked, "Doesn't it thrill you to know that every time you make a speech, the hall is packed to overflowing?" "It's quite flattering," replied Sir Winston. "But whenever I feel that way, I always remember that if instead of making a political speech I was being hanged, the crowd would be twice as big."

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS

With the cross being so important in the New Testament, it is not surprising that already in the 2nd

Century, Christians were tracing (in private devotion) the cross with the thumb or index finger on their foreheads. [New Catholic Encyclopedia: Palatine, Ill.: Jack Heraty & Associates Inc. 1967, Vol 4, p. 475.] Tertullian, a Christian living in the late 2nd and early 3rd Century, writes, in all our travels and movements, in all our coming and going out ... whatever employment occupies us, we mark our foreheads with the sign of the cross. [Knowing Our Eastern Faith Leaflet Series - Leaflet No. Oct/70-2, The Sign of the Cross in the Eastern Church (Washington, DC: St. Paul Center Byzantine - Melkite Information Bureau).]

HUMOR

I knew that my husband's hearing had deteriorated after our friend - new to the city - asked where he could meet some singles. "Well," said my husband, "I see them in the mall parking lot diving for fries." "Dear," I intervened. "Singles, not seagulls."
