There is Life in the Church because in the Church is the Spirit

My brothers and sisters, if you want the Holy Spirit to dwell in you, listen carefully. Our spirit, by means of which each individual lives, is called the soul. And look what the soul does in the body. It gives life to all the limbs. It sees with the eyes, hears with the ears, smells with the nose, speaks with the tongue, works with the hands, walks with the feet. It is present at one and the same time in all the limbs to make them live. It gives life to all the limbs and to each limb its function. It is not the eye that hears, not the ear that sees, not the eye or the ear that speaks. Yet they are nonetheless alive. The ear is alive, the tongue is alive. Their functions are different, the life is the same.

The Church of God is like that. By means of some believers she performs miracles, by means of others she teaches the truth; by means of some she keeps virginity, by means of others she respects marital fidelity. The tasks are different, the life is the same. What the soul is to the body of a human being, the Holy Spirit is to the Body of Christ, the Church. The Holy Spirit does for the whole Church what the soul does for the body of the individual. Look then and see what you ought to fear and what you ought to avoid. If the body suffers an amputation (for example of a finger or a hand or a foot) does the soul go with the limb that has been cut off? While it was in the body, that limb was alive; when it is cut off it loses its life. It is like that with Christians. They are alive only while they are in the Body. If they are cut off from the Body, the Holy Spirit is no longer with them.

QUOTE OF THE DAY

We're not like robots. God promises to guide us through the Holy Spirit, but He gives us the freedom to make our own decisions.

- Joyce Meyer

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION (MAY 2020)

Prayer intention for evangelization - For Deacons: We pray that deacons, faithful in their service to the Word and the poor, may be an invigorating symbol for the entire church.

PREPARATION OF CHURCH FOR RESUMPTION OF SERVICES

His Grace Metropolitan Lawrence has issued a memo to inform both Clergy and the Faithful that changes with regard to the Archeparchial Covid-19 regulations are on the near horizon - as parishes will be able to mobilize themselves to meet the appropriate safety precautions. The easing of these restrictions affects our church life and especially gatherings for liturgical services. The directives were issued this week and emailed to parishioners. Services to the public will resume following the Parish Council Meeting on Thursday, June 4th and logistics worked out. In the meantime, please read the directives issued by the Chancery office and familiarize yourselves with it.

CONDOLENCES

Our condolences are extended to Roy and Olga Stevenson on the passing of Roy's sister, Marlene Chartrand, who entered into the presence of the Lord on May 23rd, 2020 in Belleville, Ontario. Our prayers are extended to her family at this time of loss. Vichnaya Pam'yat - Eternal Memory.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Graphic for Pentecost Sunday featuring the word 'PENTECOST' with a flame, an illustration of the Holy Spirit, and text: 'Celebrating The Birth Of The Church COME HOLY SPIRIT Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth. O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen.' WHY NOT ME?

A young woman suffering from cancer was asked if she ever wondered, "Why me, Lord?" She replied, "I used to ask that, but then I began to take stock of my situation and began to ask, 'Why not me?' If this hadn't happened to me, it might have happened to someone I love. I wouldn't want anyone I know to have to deal with this. God made me strong, so I'll take it. I'll fight it. And I'll beat it." An older woman with cancer shared these words with a young woman battling the same disease: "Take advantage of everything that cancer has to offer you. It will give you a chance to challenge yourself and find the limits of your strengths and your faith. You will have an opportunity to get to know a whole new group of people whose lives are filled with trauma and sadness, and you can bring hope and joy to them by sharing your Christian faith. By getting the chance to fight this disease, you can find out just how special each moment and each person is. Because you will know firsthand what it is like to have it threatened, you will come to a complete understanding of just how sweet life really should, and can, be. Remember, you can carry the load you've been given, and by doing so, you will help someone else carry his load. You have been given the rare privilege, put in the wonderful situation, of being an inspiration. Latch onto this responsibility, and give it everything you've got. If you do, you will win." This same woman once said, "I want everyone to be able to see a little bit of God in me." They did — quite a lot.

HUMOUR

Finland just closed its borders. You know what that means. No one will be crossing the finish line.

I discovered what is wrong with my brain. On the left side, there is nothing right, and on the right side, there is nothing left.
