The Rich Man vs. Lazarus

Lazarus, the beggar, is called by his name because he was a saint, but the man who is rich and proud is not deemed worthy of a name. ... The meaning of Lazarus' name is boethoumenos, one who has been helped; he is not a helper, but one who has been helped. He was a poor man and, in his poverty, the Lord came to his assistance. "Who lay at his gate, covered with sores." The rich man, in purple splendor, is not accused of being avaricious, nor of carrying off the property of another, nor of committing adultery, nor, in fact, of any wrongdoing; the evil alone of which he is guilty is pride. Most wretched of men, you see a member of your own body lying there outside at your gate, and have you no compassion? If the precepts of God mean nothing to you, at least take pity on your own plight, and be in fear lest you become such as he. Why do you save what is superfluous to your pleasures? Give in alms to your own member what you waste. I am not telling you to throwaway your wealth. What you throw out, the crumbs from your table, offer as alms.

"Who lay at his gate." He was lying at the gate in order to draw attention to the cruelty paid to his body and to prevent the rich man from saying, "I did not notice him; he was in a corner; I could not see him; no one announced him to me." He lay at the gate; you saw him every time you went out and every time you came in. When your throngs of servants and clients were attending you, he lay there full of ulcers. If your eyes disdained to look upon putrid flesh, did not your ears, at least, hear his plea? "Who lay at his gate, covered with sores." He did not have just one sore, his whole body was sores, so that the magnitude of his suffering might arouse your utmost compassion.

CALLING ALL VOLUNTEERS!

Volunteers are needed to help get our manse back in shape for new occupants in the future! There are lots of tasks, large and small, that need to be done to give the manse interior a facelift – washing walls and windows, painting, flooring, removing carpet and debris, miscellaneous repairs etc. etc. If you can spare any amount of time and are handy with a bottle of Windex, wash cloth, mop, broom, vacuum, hammer, screw driver, putty knife or other tools, then we have a task for you and you will help reduce costs! If you can spare some time, please call Myrcel (204) 727-7539 before November 15 to volunteer!

BRANDON-WESTMAN CHRISTMAS CHEER

The Brandon-Westman Christmas Cheer Board held an emergency meeting on Monday, October 19th and made the difficult decision to suspend distribution of hampers for 2020. Due to COVID-19, the Board felt it could not guarantee the safety of the many volunteers and the hamper recipients. Further information will be provided at a later date.

HUMOR

A man is walking in a graveyard when he hears the Third Symphony played backward. When it's over, the Second Symphony starts playing, also backward, and then the First. "What's going on?" he asks the cemetery worker. "It's Beethoven," says the worker. "He's decomposing."

* * *

I was walking home last night and decided to take a short cut through the cemetery. Three girls walked up to me and explained that they were scared to walk past the cemetery at night, so I agreed to let them walk along with me. I told them, "I understand ... I used to get freaked out too when I was alive." Never seen anyone run so fast!!
